It doesn't look like the songs were ever registered to you other than Natty Dread. Also it seems that you should become a member of one of the Societies.

One love. Chris

Hi Chris

Hope all is well...it's been a while since we spoke last. I ended up selling my catalog and moved over to ASCAP as the new head of membership.

Paul Williams forwarded me your email concerning Allan Cole. I had someone on my staff look into it and here is what they found.

Allan Cole is not a current affiliate of any society. As a result it does not appear that he has received any International Royalties for these songs. If he joins we can reach out to societies for outstanding payments on these songs but with little guarantee that a signification amount will be adjusted to him.

1. "Natty Dread" - We've paid via a pay direct account on the non-member account a $1,399.07 in the last 5 years.
2. "Johnny Was" - Allan is not listed as a co writer on this work. The sole writer listed on this song is Rita Marley.
3. "War" - The wrong Allan Cole is listed on this work. ASCAP has been paying STIM for another Allan Cole. We can update this work and credit Allan back to 4Q2012 performances for a total of $315.18.
4. "Rat Race" - Allan is not listed as a co writer on this work. The sole writer listed on this song is Rita Marley.
5. "Zimbabwe"- Allan is not listed as a co writer on this work. The sole writer listed on this song is Bob Marley.

It looks like the only works that Alan is entitled to are "Natty Dread" and "War". If Allan has documentation indicating otherwise we can reach out to Rita Marley's representative to confirm and update the works accordingly.

Please let me know if there is anything else I can do.

All the best,
John

Dear Chris – I wanted to let you know that I heard further from ASCAP about the Allan Cole registrations and all seem to be correct at this point for his credited works, which are listed below. ASCAP also let me know that they have reached out to Allan a couple of times with regard to registering, but have not heard back from him.

I think we've done all we can for now, but please let me know if you have any further questions or need ASCAP to do any more research.

Many thanks,

Gillian

Natty Dread (Cole / Rita Marley) (ASCAP was original paying the wrong Allan Cole but advised that they are crediting back to Q212 ($314.00). This registration has been corrected)

War (Cole / Barrett)

War / No More Trouble (Cole / Barrett / Marley)

Breathe and Stop ("War" Sample) (Cole / Barrett / Cartagena / Taylor / Torres)

La Guerre ("War" alt title – translation) (Cole / Barrett)

Dear Chris:

I'm researching the authorship of Rat Race and Johnny Was, but these titles have, since the 1970s, been credited to Rita. Are we considering this an actual counter-claim by Cole after 40 years?

Zimbabwe is pretty secure as a Bob Marley work, but I will find the supporting documentation.

As for international performance royalties, it seems nothing can be done until he affiliates with ASCAP or another society (but ASCAP is the most obviously choice). Do we need to (or want to) help him with this?

Thanks,

Gillian

Well at least we are getting to the root of the problem.

We have been paying who we were told to pay.

We will be trying to recover mispayments from the societies & those who have been wrongly paid.

Hi Philip,

I and other members of my staff have spoken with the Marley family and also to their lawyers and they are not prepared to pay anything to Skil. There seems to be a lot of bad blood between them and they are adamant.

Skil should have registered the songs with ASCAP 30 years or more ago and he would have received performance royalties all this time. (ASCAP pay royalties DIRECTLY to the listed writers, NOT thru the publishers.)

There is nothing more that I can do.

As Skil is directly connected to the family (his son and Rita's daughter have a child together), he himself should speak with them and ask directly. That's the only solution I can think of at this time. I have done my best to try and sort it out without success.

One love. Chris
